For centuries astrology was called "The Queen of Science" as its profound wisdom about the essence of life is a key to life itself. It is based on the observation of nature, her rhythms and cycles combined with the journey our lights, Sun and Moon, and our planets. Practiced for over 8000 years Astrology has long become a 'science' of observation and correlation. As cultures evolved, so did the art of interpreting the heavenly symbolism and after the emergence of Freud and Jung, astrology entered a level of individual chart interpretation, which had before then only been reserved for the most privileged of leaders, kings and queens.

When the '70s brought not only gender liberation but also ancient Eastern mythology and wisdom to our Western cultures, Evolutionary Astrology was born shortly after. Evolutionary Astrology views the birth horoscope as the reflection of the unchangeable past. Meaning that what the soul has already experienced and been in previous lives which serves in this life as the magnetism for the parental and social imprint. Subconscious memories of the current personality, which provide a sense of familiarity of emotional safety, are all found within the chart. Evolutionary Astrology allows us to read the individual karmic and evolutionary intention for this current life and unveils a personally designed map of how to achieve your soul's purpose harmoniously by living in alignment with one's inner nature, and making good use of one's gifts, talents and abilities.

As in every language, Astrology has a vocabulary, which in Evolutionary Astrology is "astro-logically" based on the elements and qualities and Yin/Yang-charge of the signs. Every sign is ruled by a planet, which carries the same archetypal energies that are taught in profound detail by Ulrich Bold's class "Journey through the Zodiac" (part of the complete 26 DVD-Course that is finally available) and sequences can be viewed on YouTube under "Evolutionary Astrology".

Learning these archetypal keywords of the signs, planets and houses is the beginning of an inner journey, contemplating and seeing life from a different, more holistic and natural perspective. Profound insights about life, its dynamics, its vital and virtuous nature are just some of the gifts of Evolutionary Astrology. The DVDs provide simple techniques of building "Meaningful Sentences" and applying either classical chart analyses or interpretation rules to detect dynamics of previous lives in any given natal chart. The results are a personal orientation and understanding of one's current life, for you, your family and friends, and perhaps even potential clients. Ulrich Bold's DVD Course is truly enriching. His fresh and clear way of bringing his message and knowledge across makes studying astrology both easy and joyful. But be careful – as this course will expand your horizons in every direction, it will also change your life.
